

Upcoming Livingston Alumni Events

Thu, Oct 2, 2008 at 6:02 PM

Thanks to all who got in touch with us to share your excitement over the upcoming Livingston Legacy series. We will be holding the first program on Wednesday, March 11, 2009, at 7 p.m. in the Yorba Lounge at Tillet Hall. Our guest speakers are scheduled to include Gerald M. Pompter, Gordon J. Schochet, and W. Robert Jenkins, and they will help celebrate the history of Livingston College and its contributions to the overall Rutgers University community, and accomplishments by notable alumni. More information about the program will be available shortly.

If you haven't already replied to participate in the December 3 Speed Networking Night, please send a message to laaemail@gmail.com. This is a great evening for students to benefit from your experience and expertise, and a fun program for alumni. Special thanks to the RAA and Rutgers Career Services for their co-sponsorship of this program.

And, mark your calendars for Reunion Weekend May 15-17, 2009, which will feature the presentation of the Livingston Distinguished Alumni Awards to a group of very worthy recipients (whom you will hear more about very shortly) and a fun weekend of other exciting programs, including the acclaimed "Knights On Broadway" cabaret, Family Day, and a variety of programs for all Rutgers alumni and their families. If you are a member of a graduating class year ending in a 4 or 9, there are special programs just for you! Look for more information shortly and don't miss out on the fun!

Please let me know if you would like more information about our programs or if you are interested in helping us as a volunteer. Thanks so much for your interest in the LAA.
