Thu, Jan 15, 2009 at 7:04 PM

We are gearing up for a very special program taking place on Wednesday, March 11, at 7 p.m. in the Yorba Lounge of Tillet Hall on the Livingston Campus. A number of faculty members who were involved with the start and development of Livingston College will be discussing the history and legacy of Livingston College and its impact on the lives of students and Rutgers University, along with its contributions to the overall global community. Admission is free, but we ask that you please register in advance so that we can plan accordingly for seating and desserts.

We are pleased to announce that our speakers are scheduled to include:

- Dr. Gerald Pomper, past chair of the Livingston College political science department
- Professor Gordon Schochet, Livingston College political science department
- Dr. W. Robert Jenkins, Dean, Livingston College, 1976-1990
- just added to our program - Professor Edward Ortiz, Livingston College Hispanic/Latino studies

Register now and join us for a special evening celebrating Livingston College's history. I am looking forward to seeing you.

Best wishes for a great 2009.
