

Livingston Awards Dinner & Reunion Weekend

Fri, Apr 3, 2009 at 8:05 PM

Our thanks to all who submitted nominations for the first-ever Livingston Legacy Awards. I am pleased to announce that our 2009 award recipients are Professors Maria Canino, Edward Ortiz, and Gordon Schochet.

Professors Canino, Ortiz, and Schochet will be receiving their awards at the May 16 Livingston Distinguished Alumni Awards Dinner. We invite you to join us and celebrate the influence that they had on the development of Livingston College and its mission. Tickets to the awards dinner are available for $30 and can be purchased online at www.livingstonalumni.org/awardsdinner or by sending a check (payable to the Livingston Alumni Association) to Livingston Alumni Association, PO Box 5403, New Brunswick, NJ 08903.

As noted in earlier messages, we will also honor at the May 16 dinner the recipients of the Livingston Distinguished Alumni Award-Marla Diamond, Françoise Jacobsohn, and Martha Nell-Smith-and present the Seth Dvorin Young Alumni Award to the family of Kevin Apuzzio. The awards dinner is being held in conjunction with Reunion 2009 at Rutgers-New Brunswick, where you can sign up for a variety of great events, including:

- special activities for graduation classes ending in 4s and 9s, and fun events for all Rutgers graduates,
- wine tasting featuring performances by the Livingston Theatre Company,
- the Livingston Alumni Association's annual meeting and election of board officers,
- Livingston Distinguished Alumni Awards Dinner,
- ...and more!

To sign up for Reunion programs, visit Ralumni.com/reunion.

And, if you were not able to attend the March 11 Livingston Legacy program, you missed a very lively event featuring insightful commentary by Professors Edward Ortiz, Gerald Pomper, and Gordon Schochet on the history of Livingston College and its contributions to the overall Rutgers educational experience. Listen to a podcast of the March 11 program and read a great blog posted by Rob Snyder LC'77. Special thanks to 90.3 The Core for their help with the podcast.

We hope to see you at the awards dinner on May 16 and throughout Reunion weekend.

Best wishes,
Marty Siederer LC'77
