

LIVINGSTON ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Chartered Member of the Rutgers University Alumni Association

On Wednesday, April 21, 2010, at 7:00 p.m. at the Livingston Student Center, there will be an exciting panel discussion celebrating the history and impact of the Department of Journalism and Urban Communications, and the current and future state of the journalism industry. Professor Jerome Aumente and members of the Department of Journalism and Urban Communications faculty from the 1970s will discuss the start and development of the Department of Journalism and Urban Communications, and its impact on the overall Rutgers and global communities. Our panel is scheduled to include former Livingston professors Roger Cohen and Jay Miller, along with Jim Simon and Rob Snyder, two 1970s Livingston journalism and urban communications majors. This is your last chance to register for the Livingston Legacy Journalism lecture program. The event is cosponsored by the School of Communication and Information Alumni Association and Livingston Office of the Campus Dean.

Just added! The Rutgers University Historical Society will present a program on the history of Livingston College on April 12 at 6:30 p.m. at the Livingston Student Center. Panelists are scheduled to include:

- Dr. Lawrence Pervin, former Dean of Student Affairs, retired Professor of Psychology
- Dr. Melvin Gary, former Associate Dean for Student Affairs, retired Professor of Psychology
- Mr. Donald Edwards, former Associate Dean for Administration and Planning, retired VP for Public Affairs & Development
- Dr. Gerald Pomper, Professor of Political Science

The Rutgers-New Brunswick Reunion weekend is quickly approaching. This is a great opportunity to get back in touch with former friends and make some new ones. This year's festivities will have programs for the most recent graduates to members of the Old Guard, including a special reception for Livingston Alumni featuring the sounds of Larry, Friends, and Family, a band that formed in House 19 during Livingston's early years.

Online registration is now available. Check out the LAA's website for more details.

In closing, we regret to announce the passing of Professor Edward Ortiz, a pioneering Livingston College faculty member, particularly in the areas of Puerto Rican and Urban Studies. We had the honor of recognizing Professor Ortiz for his contributions to Livingston at our awards dinner in May 2009, and his legacy will live on.

Marty Siederer
President, Livingston Alumni Association

P.S.:

- The Livingston Alumni Association executive board elections are coming up soon. If you're interested in running for an LAA board position or know someone who would be a great candidate, make sure to email us at info@livingstonalumni.org. Your last chance to nominate is on April 21.
- The Rutgers Business School is sponsoring a program on April 24 about "Finding A Workplace That You'll Love."
