Hello, fellow alumni! This is your last chance to register for Reunion weekend, May 14-16. Join us for a special Livingston-only cocktail reception on Saturday, May 15, at 6:00 p.m. in the new Livingston Student Center, featuring a reunion of "Larry, Friends and Family," a light-rock band from Livingston's House 19 that formed during our school's first graduating class (1973). This is all part of an exciting Rutgers Reunion weekend! For more details, go to www.livingstonalumni.org/reunion today. Tickets are only $25 for the reception.

The LAA Annual Meeting will be held Saturday, May 15, at 5:00 p.m. at the Yorba Lounge, Tillet Hall. Please join us to vote on the slate of 2010 Board members and officers, and learn about our plans for the coming year.

RSVPs for the annual meeting and reception must be received by May 7, 2010. I look forward to seeing all of you at the annual meeting and Reunion.

Congratulations to Greg Brown LC'82 on being inducted into the Rutgers Hall of Distinguished Alumni. He joins Eddie Jordan LC'77 and Clifton Lacey LC'76 as fellow Livingston graduates who have received this prestigious award, which is presented to alumni whose achievements in professional and civic life have brought honor to themselves and Rutgers University. Special thanks to all who attended the April 21 Livingston Legacy Journalism program, co-sponsored with the School of Communication and Information Alumni Association and the Livingston Campus Dean. Over 100 alumni, students, and faculty joined us for an exciting evening that featured professors Jerome Aumente and Roger Cohen, and Livingston alumni Jim Simon and Rob Snyder, and included a discussion about the history and contributions of the journalism programs at Livingston and Rutgers, and a look at the overall journalism industry. If you weren't able to join us, you can listen to a podcast here.

Best wishes,
Marty Siederer LC'77
