While the summer heat is upon all of us, the Livingston Alumni Association (LAA) has an exciting lineup of October and November programs.

- If you took a philosophy class or majored in philosophy at Livingston or Rutgers, you know the important role the professors and staff in this curriculum played in the overall Livingston and Rutgers experiences. On Wednesday, October 13, at 7:00 p.m. in room 201 of the Livingston Student Center, members of the Philosophy Department will share their experiences about the formation and growth of their program at Livingston. Panelists are scheduled to include professors Martha Bolton, Martin Bunzl, Mary Gibson, Peter Klein, Howard McGarry, Brian McLaughlin, and Dwight Murph. Register now for this program.
- Join the fun at Rutgers Homecoming on October 1-3. If you would like to help with LAA-related activities, please email info@livingstonalumni.org. Register now for the Sunday, October 3, Run for RAH 5K Charity Race & 1 Mile Fun Walk and join the LAA team.
- The Department of Africana Studies will be hosting a commemoration at the Paul Robeson Cultural Center to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the department's beginnings at Livingston College. The weekend of events, "Students, Activism, Africana: An Indaba on the Role of Students in the History of Africana Studies," celebrates the involvement of students in the formative first years of Africana Studies at Livingston and looks more broadly at how the discipline developed at Rutgers and nationally through student participation over the past four decades. We are excited to help cosponsor this program with the Department of Africana Studies. For more information, please contact Dr. Kim Butler at kbutler@rci.rutgers.edu.
- Save Wednesday, November 17, for the always-popular Alumni-Student Career Speed Networking program at a new location - The Rutgers Student Center on College Avenue, New Brunswick, starting at 6:00 p.m. More details to come next month. This is a great opportunity to network with other alumni and provide students with tips for navigating the job market.
- Finally, save the date of Saturday, May 14, 2011, for the Livingston Distinguished Alumni Awards Dinner. Stayed tuned for more information about this exciting celebration of our alma mater.

Best wishes,
