

Introducing the 2012 Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award Recipient

Fri, May 4, 2012 at 2:01 PM

I am very pleased to announce that Amy Tran, SAS '12 has been selected as the recipient of the 2012 Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride award. Amy is majoring in cell biology and neurology, and is a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society. Amy is active in the Rutgers Vietnamese Student Association, Operation Smile and mentors tenth graders at Piscataway High School. She will be recognized at the Livingston Alumni Association's annual meeting on Saturday, May 12 at 2 pm at the Livingston Student Center. Please come on out and help us recognize Amy for her achievements and dedication to the mission of Livingston College and memory of Riki Jacobs.

The LAA's annual meeting is part of a great weekend of Rutgers Reunion activities, including Knights on Broadway, a tour of the past, present and future buildings on the Livingston Campus, and a number of exciting class reunion activities. This is the last chance to register at www.Ralumni.com. At our annual meeting, we will be presenting our 2012 slate of board officers and members for approval. Come and elect the new board slate, and hear about the LAA's plans for the coming year. We hope to see you there!

Reminder: Please submit nominations for the Livingston Distinguished Alumni Award, Seth Dvorin Young Alumni Award and Livingston Legacy Award by June 30. Visit <http://www.livingstonalumni.org/awards-dinner> for more information and the nomination form.

Best wishes,
Mike Beachem LC'72
President, Livingston Alumni Association
