

Senator Sweeney / Governor Christie Action to Eliminate the Rutgers Board of Trustees

There is a great deal of conversation in Trenton, and a Senate proposal to change Rutgers governance (and provide more control to Trenton) by eliminating the Board of Trustees, which has provided governance and oversight to Rutgers University since 1766. Articles describing this initiative and its progress were published on NJ.com.

- Rutgers Board of Trustees would be axed under bill proposed by Senate President Sweeney
- Gov. Christie says it's time to reshape how Rutgers is operated
- N.J. Legislature fast-tracks bill to eliminate Rutgers Board of Trustees
- Rutgers board may have to give consent for own elimination, legislative office says
- Opinion: Sweeney in vengeful bid to kill Rutgers trustees board

A vote is expected today, please act quickly. Add you voice to those opposing this action. Go to this URL, and easily send your thoughts to your representatives:

<http://capwiz.com/friendsofrutgers/utr/2/?a=62743926&i=125170692&c=>

In Rutgers spirit,

Jason Goldstein, President, Livingston Alumni Association