

President's Message

Greetings fellow Livingston alumni and friends,

Rutgers is back in session and the Livingston Alumni Association has an exciting roster of events planned and we hope to see you in attendance. Consider joining us for an event, send in a memory from your days on Livingston or stop by for a meeting and see the new buildings and the amazing transformation of the campus.

Visit our website <http://www.livingstonalumni.org> or our Facebook Page to stay in touch and we hope to see you at one of our many fall programs.

In Rutgers Spirit,
Jason Goldstein LC'02, RBS'05

Homecoming Weekend 2013

Rutgers-New Brunswick's Homecoming football game will be held Saturday, October 26, at the High Point Solutions Stadium on the Busch campus, as the Scarlet Knights face Houston. The game is just part of Homecoming Weekend, during which the Rutgers University Alumni Association is sponsoring events along with Student Life, the Rutgers University Programming Association, and Athletics. The programs featured offer a variety of opportunities for alumni, students, and local community members to meet up and have fun on campus! Here is a schedule of events:

Friday, October 25 >> Alumni Leaders Conference, Rutgers Excellence in Alumni Leadership Awards, Ghost Tour of College Avenue, Young Alumni Homecoming Eve Happy Hour

Saturday, October 26 >> Young Alumni Beer and Breakfast of Champions, Homecoming Block R Party, Rutgers vs. Houston football game

Sunday, October 27 >> Run for RAH 5K Charity Race and 1-Mile Fun Walk

More information can be found at:

Speed Networking - 12/4

Rutgers alumni and friends are cordially invited to participate in the Eighth Annual Rutgers Alumni-Student Career Speed Networking on Wednesday, December 4, 2013, from 6 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the College Avenue Student

Awards to Honor Three Distinguished Alumni, Journalism Professor

Join us on Wednesday, October 9, as we celebrate the legacy of Livingston College at the Livingston Alumni Association's Distinguished Alumni and Livingston Legacy Award dinner.

The Livingston College Distinguished Alumni Award is given to graduates of Livingston College who embody the spirit of Livingston through their professional accomplishments.

The 2013 alumni honorees are:

- Ndiri N. Amutah, LC'03
- Nicholas Ferroni, LC'02
- Jessie Hanna, LC'06

The Livingston Legacy award will be given to Roger Cohen, retired Rutgers journalism professor, for his role in strengthening the college's mission. Biographies of all the award winners are at <http://livingstonalumni.org/awards/index.html>, where you can register for the event, which will be held at the Rutgers Club on the College Avenue campus in New Brunswick, N.J. Tickets are only $25 each.

More information on the honorees and the event is on our special awards page, with a link to register for the event. Share the event with your Facebook friends!

Day of Service Coat Drive

Please help us collect new, or gently used coats again this year. As in past drives, they will be distributed to those in need, by NJ Cares. Collection will occur prior to the Rutgers v Cincinnati football game on November 16th, and is co-sponsored with Rutgers Alumni Association and the Rutgers Athletics Department.

Tell Us Your Story

Student Life Memories Sought for Book Celebrating Rutgers' 250th Anniversary
Marie Logue, a former dean and assistant VP at Rutgers, is putting together a chapter on student life at Rutgers for an upcoming coffee-table book celebrating Rutgers' upcoming 250th anniversary. Dean Logue is looking for reminiscences about student life, and wants to hear your voice. Email her at logue@rutgers.edu by early October 2013 and share your memories with the LAA as well, for possible inclusion on our website, by CC'ing info@livingstonalumni.org. Check out the previously posted student memories.

LIVINGSTON ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Preserving the history. Advancing the legacy.

Center in New Brunswick. More information is available on the registration page. Alumni-Student Career Speed Networking Night is dedicated to providing support and networking opportunities to current Rutgers students before they graduate. Alumni from various career fields will interact with students during short "Speed Networking" intervals to provide career advice and networking tips and to help students become confident job-seekers. The evening also includes time for alumni-to-alumni networking. Please join us and enjoy a rewarding night filled with fun and opportunity! The program is sponsored by the Rutgers Alumni Association's (RAA) Undergraduate Committee, RAA Young Alumni Committee, Cook Community Alumni Association, Livingston Alumni Association, Graduate School of Education Alumni Association, Graduate School New Brunswick Alumni Association and Rutgers University Career Services.
