

LIVINGSTON ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Chartered Member of the Rutgers University Alumni Association

Greetings fellow Livingston alumni and friends,

The Rock was more than a nickname for Livingston College in its early days; it was also the title for the college's early yearbooks. You can now flip through LC's yearbooks for 1974, '77, '78, '79, and '81, courtesy of Rutgers University Libraries. The LAA is actively collecting accounts of the college's 40-year history. Email us your memories to info@livingstonalumni.org.

LAA members and friends volunteered at the Community FoodBank of New Jersey on Saturday, November 8, as part of the fourth annual Rutgers Alumni Day of Service. Read more about LAA's community service efforts.

Save the dates:

All-Alumni Theater Night: Saturday, Feb. 21, 2015

Join the Livingston Alumni Association and our co-sponsors for the Rutgers All-Alumni Theater Night, Saturday, February 21, 2015, at the Livingston Theatre Company's production of The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee.

The event includes a VIP dessert reception at 6 p.m., followed by the show at 8 p.m., at the Livingston Student Center.

The reception will include a primer about the show and backstage information about the process from members of the production team, as well as a prize raffle. Then right before the curtain goes up all reception attendees will be escorted to the reserved VIP seating in the best section of the theater.

Along with the LAA, the cosponsors of the Theater Night are the university-wide Rutgers University Alumni Association, Associate Alumnae of Douglass College, George H. Cook Community Alumni, Graduate School of Education Alumni Association, Graduate School New Brunswick Alumni Association, Livingston Theatre Company Alumni, Rutgers Alumni Association, and the University College Rutgers–New Brunswick Alumni Association.

It's never too early to think about spring. April 24-25, 2015, will be a weekend to remember, with Alumni Weekend (Reunion) combined with the huge public celebration known as Rutgers Day, including Ag Field Day and the New Jersey Folk Festival. More details will be announced in early 2015.

LAA Partners with Unity Bank in the UCare Charitable Giving Program, for the Benefit of the LAA's, Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award

Organizations like ours make our communities stronger. Unity Bank is committed to partnering with the organizations they depend on, to help our communities grow and prosper.

The Livingston Alumni Association is enrolled in the Unity Bank, UCare program and will receive a quarterly donation based on balances of designated accounts. Our members and supporters can designate their Unity Bank accounts as participant accounts.

Eligible accounts that supporters may designate are checking, savings and CDs, to become participant accounts.

Once enrolled, Bank donations are directed to our organization, at no cost to our supporters. The more individuals that choose our organization, the more donations we receive, thereby, providing the most support possible for the LAA's Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award.

Become a UCare partner and help us grow the Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award!
To Become a Supporter:

If you bank at Unity Bank, download the form to designate your eligible accounts to become LAA participant accounts, or stop in to your local branch and let them know you are a supporter so the Livingston Alumni Association can earn donations. It's completely confidential, and there's no cost to you!

In Rutgers Spirit,
Jason Goldstein LC'02, RBS'05
President, Livingston Alumni Association