

LIVINGSTON ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Chartered Member of the Rutgers University Alumni Association

Greetings fellow Livingston alumni and friends,

On April 7th the Executive Council met and announced the 2015-2016 Slate of Officers, they are:
President Eric Schwarz LC92, SCILS92,07 , Vice presidents Debra O'Neal LC87 and Michelle Jackson LC2004; Vice President/Secretary Jeff Armus LC77, GSM82; Treasurer Jeff Isaacs LC84.

The LAA is actively collecting accounts of the college's 40-year history -- including interviews for the Rutgers Oral History Archives. Here is your opportunity to become a part of Livingston's rich history. Email us your memories and we'll also be happy to put you in touch with oral historian Molly Graham.

Back in 1971 (and for about 10 years thereafter), the Rutgers undergraduate colleges offered fairly distinct majors. The fields of study available to Livingston students are marked with L in a 1971 catalog. We'd be happy to publish memories of your studies at Livingston. Just drop us a line.

Don't forget that Livingston's yearbooks from 1974, 1977, 1978, 1979 and 1981 are online. See the events and people who made a difference at Livingston.

Archival images from those yearbooks (and some other sources) are featured in our Throwback Thursday social media postings. Images from those yearbooks (and other sources) are posted each week, along with a fun fact and a question or two to jog your memory. Check us out each Thursday on Facebook. You don't need an account to view each posting, but you do to log in to comment.

The Rutgers All-Alumni Theater Afternoon happened Sunday April 19th at the Livingston Theatre. The Company's production of "In The Heights" was excellent and everyone enjoyed. The event is Co-sponsored by the Livingston Alumni Association. Everyone enjoyed the Sunday brunch before show reception which included door prize raffles. Three lucky winners received season passes to the 2015-2016 upcoming theater season.

Along with the LAA, the cosponsors of the Theater Night are the university-wide Rutgers University Alumni Association, Associate Alumnae of Douglass College, George H. Cook Community Alumni, Graduate School of Education Alumni Association, Graduate School New Brunswick Alumni Association, Livingston Theatre Company Alumni, Rutgers Alumni Association, and the University College Rutgers–New Brunswick Alumni Association.

LAA Partners with Unity Bank in the UCare Charitable Giving Program, for the Benefit of the LAA's, Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award:

Since 1997, the Livingston Alumni Association has presented the Pride Award to a Livingston College student who most embodies the spirit of Livingston's leadership and social action.

All Rutgers University graduating seniors on the New Brunswick-Piscataway Campus can apply for the award, which consists of a minimum $300 grant from the LAA . Here's how you can become an active participant in this process.

Organizations like ours make our communities stronger. Unity Bank is committed to partnering with the organizations they depend on, to help our communities grow and prosper.

The Livingston Alumni Association is enrolled in the Unity Bank, UCare program and will receive a quarterly donation based on balances of designated accounts. Our members and supporters can designate their Unity Bank accounts as participant accounts.

Eligible accounts that supporters may designate are checking, savings and CDs , to become participant accounts.

Once enrolled, Bank donations are directed to our organization, at no cost to our supporters. The more individuals that choose our organization, the more donations we receive, thereby, providing the most support possible for the LAA's Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award.

Become a UCare partner and help us grow the Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award!

To Become a Supporter:

If you bank at Unity Bank, download this form to designate your eligible accounts to become LAA participant accounts, or stop in to your local branch and let them know you are a supporter so the Livingston Alumni Association can earn donations. It's completely confidential, and there's no cost to you!
