PRESERVING THE HISTORY.
ADVANCING THE LEGACY.

Happy November from the Livingston Alumni Association (LAA), as we celebrate Rutgers' 250th anniversary this month!

---

The annual Alumni-Student Career Speed Networking event is set for 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, December 7, 2016, at the College Avenue Student Center. Alumni will enjoy a light dinner then provide networking to students every three minutes. The event stresses the importance of networking and that every alumnus/a is an important resource. Matthew Aquino, a 2008 graduate of both Livingston College and Rutgers Business School (RBS), has mentored multiple RBS students, all of whom have successfully completed their internship programs and earned full-time offers upon graduation. In October 2016, Aquino received the Young Alumni Service Award from the Rutgers University Alumni Association (RUAA). RUAA honored Aquino for his mentorship, as well as for his work on his five-year class reunion campaign.

Alumnus of the Month: In April 2006, Kevin Apuzzio, a volunteer firefighter and emergency medical technician (EMT), gave his life in the line of duty. A month later, Livingston College posthumously awarded him a bachelor's degree, and later in 2006, he received Rutgers' Edward J. Bloustein Award for Community Service. In 2009, LAA honored Apuzzio as a Seth Dvorin Distinguished Young Alumnus. On the 10th anniversary of his death in 2016, friends and family remembered Apuzzio, with the Union Township Committee and the Union County Sheriff presenting commemorative resolutions to his family.
