Thank You, Eric Schwarz

Under the leadership of Eric Schwarz LC '92 SCI '07, the Livingston Alumni Association continued to expand its outreach to Livingston College graduates and celebration of its impact on the overall Rutgers University and global communities. Eric has served as President of the LAA since 2015 and his service to the Livingston Alumni community has been deeply appreciated and impactful.

The presentation of the Rutgers University Alumni Association's Block R Award to Eric in 2013 and his actions as LAA President through the past four years are testaments to his dedication to the Livingston College mission and Livingston Alumni legacy.

We thank Eric for his years of service as LAA President and are grateful for his leadership and support.

Help Us Celebrate Livingston College's 50th Anniversary

The first Livingston College students arrived on campus in September 1969, and the college's graduates have impacted the global community through all walks of life. We are planning programs throughout the year to celebrate Livingston's 50th anniversary but need your help! If you would like to volunteer or have ideas for programs, please contact us.
