

News from Livingston Alumni Association: Theater Night, Pride Award winner

Fri, May 6, 2016 at 9:00 AM

A merry May from the Livingston Alumni Association (LAA)!

The 2016 All-Alumni Theater Night was a great success, bringing together more than 50 alumni and friends to celebrate and enjoy The Livingston Theatre Company's production of the musical Urinetown on Sunday, April 24, 2016.

Before the play, attendees enjoyed musical performances from several members of the LTC, along with refreshments and raffles of Rutgers memorabilia.

During the Theater Night event, the LAA honored Victor A. Mensah, winner of the 2016 Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award. Mensah founded a peer mentoring program for first-generation students at Rutgers. In the fall, he will enter Rutgers' Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, on track to become a medical doctor in four years. Read more about Mensah and his accomplishments.

On Saturday, April 9, Livingston College alumni Greg Brown ('82) and Jeffrey M. Isaacs ('84) were among eight alumni honored by the Rutgers Alumni Association (RAA) as Loyal Sons and Loyal Daughters of Rutgers.

Greg Brown is the Chairman of Rutgers' Board of Governors, and has served as a leader of other Rutgers governing bodies since 2003.

For more than 25 years, Jeff Isaacs has been a steadfast volunteer as a board officer for the LAA and Rutgers University Alumni Federation, and a member of the Rutgers Board of Trustees.

LAA Partners with Unity Bank in the UCare Charitable Giving Program, for the Benefit of the Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award

LAA's Riki Jacobs Livingston Pride Award has been given each year since 1990 to a Rutgers-New Brunswick student who most embodies the spirit of Livingston College's leadership and social action. The award winner receives a minimum $500 grant from LAA.

Current and new customers of Unity Bank can help fund this award confidentially and at no cost to the customer. Find out how.
