PRESERVING THE HISTORY.
ADVANCING THE LEGACY.

October is a time for Homecoming and fun for Rutgers Alumni and their families.

Rutgers-New Brunswick's Homecoming celebration (including the Scarlet Knights vs. University of Illinois football game) takes place Saturday, October 15. Kickoff is at noon, but the fun begins several hours earlier. The Family Fall Fest for children and their families starts at 9 a.m. At 10 a.m., Rutgers alumni can claim free 250th Anniversary limited-edition hats. Earlier in the week, alumni can join students at a kickoff bonfire (Monday, October 10) and the charity bed races (Thursday, October 13). Most of these events, including the hat giveaway, require registration, and in the case of the game, tickets, so make sure to see the linked page for complete details.

Scarlet Harvest Family Day offers another fun fall event. Scarlet Harvest, organized by the Rutgers Alumni Association, will be held Sunday, October 23 at Rutgers Gardens. Kids can decorate their own pumpkin, make s'mores, and enjoy crafts and caramel apples, among other activities. Pre-register by October 17.

Alumnus of the Month: Sixteen years ago, Gregg Spiridellis, LC'93, and his brother Evan, riffed on the presidential election (Bush vs. Gore) with their breakout hit Capital III, from their then-new company JibJab Media. JibJab today allows users to create their own videos and e-cards. In 2006, the Livingston Alumni Association honored Gregg Spiridellis with the Seth Dvorin Distinguished Young Alumni Award.

Save the date: The annual Alumni-Student Career Speed Networking event is set for the evening of Wednesday, December 7, 2016, at the College Avenue Student Center. Registration details will be announced later in the fall.
